

Professional and Life Long Skill Development of Students

UNF graduates will be prepared personally and professionally through the critical interface between their formal education and real-life experiences. Graduates will possess critical thinking, effective oral and written communication skills, and will be able to make decisions based on ethical principles. UNF will foster lifelong skills and professional development through a variety of instructional strategies including, as possible components, the following:

- Internships
- Student research with faculty
- Cooperative learning
- Service Learning
- On campus micro learning environments (e.g., Osprey Finance Group)
- Career preparation and management
- Interaction with local business leaders
- Written and Oral Communication Skills
- Critical Thinking skills
