Tonight's Artists

Guy Yehuda

Clarinetist Guy Yehuda is recognized as an outstanding talent on the international concert stage around the world today. He is the top prize-winner of the 2003 Heida Hermanns International Woodwind Competition, the 2004 Indianapolis Matinee Musicale Competition, and the 2004 Fischhoff Chamber Music Competition (as member of the Trio di Colore). Since his North American Concerto debut with the Royal Conservatory Orchestra and conductor Peter Oundjian, Mr. Yehuda has toured extensively in Europe, North America, and Israel. As principal clarinetist, Mr. Yehuda has performed with the Israel Philharmonic, Lucerne Contemporary Festival Orchestra, Chicago Civic Orchestra, Spoleto Festival Orchestra, Haifa Symphony Orchestra, and Cincinnati Chamber Orchestra, among others as well as guest clarinetist with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra and the Jacksonville Symphony Orchestra. Charlie Rankin

Charlie Rankin earned a Bachelor's and Master's degree in Instrumental Music Education from the Florida State University College of Music. As an undergraduate student, he had the opportunity to perform in a variety of ensembles, including the FSU Marching Chiefs in which was a member of the "big 8" drum line and ultimately served as assistant drum major for the 2000 season.

Professor Rankin started his career in music education teaching general music to primary grade students at Dr. W. J. Creel Elementary School in Brevard County, Florida. In 2002, he was appointed as the band director at Orange Park Junior High School in Orange Park, Florida. In 2004, he was recognized as the Teacher of the Year at Orange Park Junior High School.

Professor Rankin was appointed as an adjunct faculty member at the University of North Florida in the fall of 2007. His responsibilities include conducting the University Concert Band and teaching courses in music education. During the summer months, Professor Rankin serves as the Dean of Students for North Florida Music Camps, which are hosted at UNF. In addition to his University appointment, Professor Rankin is currently the band director at Pacetti Bay Middle School in St. John's County Florida where he was selected as the 2008 - 2009 Teacher of Year. He is a member of Florida Bandmaster's Association, National Band Association, Florida Music Educators Association, and the Epsilon Iota chapter of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia.
