

NORTHEAST FLORIDA STUDENT PHILOSOPHY CONFERENCE

SCHEDULE

8:30 – 9:00 Check-In

Brooks College of Health – Building 39/1009.

Note: All sessions take place in Brooks.

9:00 – 9:15 Welcome

Bert Koegler

Chair, Department of Philosophy, University of North Florida

Room: Brooks College of Health 39/1009

9:15 – 10:30 Plenary Session I

“Culture and the Value of Philosophy: The Latin American Case”

Speaker: Manuel Vargas (University of San Francisco / Harvard – Radcliffe Institute)

Chair: Hugh Marlowe (Flagler College)

Room: Brooks College of Health 39/1009

10:40 – 11:30 Concurrent Sessions I

“The Structure of Evidence Relation and Evidential Theory of A Priori Intuition”

Speaker: Ivana Simic (University of Florida)

Chair: Mitch Haney (University of North Florida)

Room: Brooks College of Health 39/1001

“Foucault and Mead: A New Model of Freedom-Autonomy”

Speaker: Mark Simpson (University of North Florida)

Chair: Chloë Taylor (University of North Florida)

Room: Brooks College of Health 39/1002

“The Impact of Chalmers’ Theory of Consciousness on the Theistic Argument from Consciousness”

Speaker: Andrew Brenner (University of North Florida)

Chair: Murray Skees (University of North Florida)

Room: Brooks College of Health 39/1026

11:40 – 12:30 Concurrent Sessions II

“How to Motivate the Maxim that ‘Ought Implies Can’ to Defend the Principle of Alternate Possibilities”

Speaker: Sean Armil (University of Florida)

Chair: Nick Michaud (University of North Florida)

Room: Brooks College of Health 39/1001

“Even Einstein was Irrational: Comments on Sosa and Galloway’s ‘Man the Rational Animal?’”

Speaker: John Carpenter (Florida State University)

Chair: David Kline (University of North Florida)

Room: Brooks College of Health 39/1002

“Can I Be Many? A Metaphysical Implication of Dissociative Identity Disorder”

Speaker: Steven Matthew Duncan (Georgia State University)

Chair: Marin Smilov (Santa Fe College)

Room: Brooks College of Health 39/1026

12:30 – 2:30 Lunch

Note: See 'Lunch Options' handout.

2:30 – 3:30 Panel Discussion

“Liberation Theology in Latin America”

Speakers: Alison Bruey (University of North Florida – History)

Randall Reed (Appalachian State University – Religious Studies)

Renee Scott (University of North Florida – World Languages)

Chair: Laura Ammon (University of North Florida)

Room: Brooks College of Health 39/1009

3:40 – 4:30 Concurrent Sessions III

“A Defense of Lewisian Contextualism”

Speaker: Yael Benjamin (University of Massachusetts at Dartmouth)

Chair: Karla Pierce (Florida Community College at Jacksonville)

Room: Brooks College of Health 39/1001

“On the Limitations of Formal Methods”

Speaker: Wataru Asanuma (Florida State University)

Chair: Jennifer Fisher (University of North Florida)

Room: Brooks College of Health 39/1002

“The Immorality of Nonmoral Pursuits”

Speaker: Meghan Orman (University of North Florida)

Chair: Alisa Swota (University of North Florida)

Room: Brooks College of Health 39/1026

4:30 – 4:45 Restroom and Refreshment Break

4:45 – 6:00 Plenary Session II (Ellen C. Wagner Lecture)

“Two Conceptions of Latin American Philosophy”

Speaker: Guillermo Hurtado (Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México)

Chair: Joshua Rust (Stetson University)

Room: Brooks College of Health 39/1009

6:00 – 6:15 Closing Remarks

Andy Buchwalter

Director of the Graduate Program, Department of Philosophy, University of North Florida

Room: Brooks College of Health 39/1009