

April 17

The Jacksonville Joe Berg Seminars A Community Partner with the University of North Florida and its Science and Culture Initiative

HUMANITIES SCHEDULE 2009-2010

September 10	Mr. Mike Clark, Times-Union Editorial Page Editor, "Journalism Ethics"
September 24	At FCCJ's Wilson Center, Mr. David Engdahl, Lecture and Show of recent works in laminated wood sculpture
September 29	BONUS SEMINAR – World Affairs Council Global Issues lecture at UNF, Ambassador Jeffrey Davidow, "Are We Losing Latin America?"
October 8	Mr. Jeff Olma, FSCJ, "Creativity Workshop"
October 29	Dr. Ray Oldakowski, Jacksonville University, "Social Geography of the Middle East"
November 12	At Jacksonville University, Mr. John Ricci, Saxophonist and Director of Jazz Studies, "The Language of Jazz"
December 3	At UNF, Joe Berg Seminars Graduation, Dr. Oupa Seane, Dir. UNF Intercultural Center for PEACE, "Nelson Mandela, Desmond Tutu, and the Importance of Education"
January 21	Mr. Joe Flowers, UNF English Instructor, "Ethical Eating"
February 4	Dr. Sharon Scholl, JU Humanities Prof, ret., "Three Visions of Paradise; Winslow Homer, Sidney Lanier, and Fredrick Delius in NE Florida"
February 18	Mr. John Kalinowski, District Attorney and Director of Mad Cowford Improv, and Rachel Wical, Allstate VP of Corporate Training and Player at Mad Cowford Improv, "Life is an Improvisation"
March 4	At the Museum of Contemporary Art Jax, Tour of entire Museum plus talk and focus on "Life as a Legend: Marilyn Monroe – Pop and Celebrity"
March 18	Ms. Cindy Edelman, The Bolles School, "Workshop in Art Styles"
April 15	Dr. Yongan Wu, UNF Asst Prof of Chinese Language and Culture, "The Rise of China's 'Martian' Language: Internet and Individualism"

Chess the Broadway musical

BONUS SEMINAR – At JU's Swisher Theater, a lecture on the Cold War followed by