

The Business Affiliates Program

Membership Form

The Business Affiliates Program at the University of North Florida is an ongoing partnership between the Coggin College of Business and over 100 individuals and companies committed to excellence in business education. Your annual support to the Business Affiliates enables us to propel the distinctive quality of our academic program and respond to the special needs of faculty and students. We are proud of our dynamic partnership with Jacksonville's business community and we are committed to providing it with professionally trained employees who will lead their organizations in the 21st century.
