Review of Invention/Work

In the interest of developing intellectual property from research performed by the faculty, staff and students at the University of North Florida (hereinafter "University"), and in recognition of the value of independent evaluation of invention disclosures, it is desirable to share with University faculty and/or staff (hereinafter "recipient") indicated below documents, data and/or information (collectively called "information" herein) on the general research topic described below. The University has a proprietary interest in the information. Accordingly, the University requires that the information be held in confidence to protect and preserve the intellectual property rights of the University and the faculty member(s) in the information and the University's right to file and pursue patent applications and commercialization of its intellectual property.

The "recipient" by signature below recognizes the principles involved in the protection of intellectual property and agrees that:

1. The "information" shall be held in confidence.
2. The "recipient" shall not disclose the "information" to persons outside of the research group currently working with the "information" for any reason, without first obtaining the University's written approval for such disclosure.
3. Specifically, but without limitation, "recipient" will not use any of the "information" for any commercial purpose or development of any products or technology and shall not use or attempt to practice any invention arising from or disclosed in the "information", or any part thereof, without first entering into an agreement with the University permitting such use or practice.

Material transmitted: "Information" for the purpose of this document refers to all information, data, records and related material shared with or learned by the "recipient" which have been developed through research by and others at UNF in relationship to the topic defined as ".....," including new information developed after the date of this document.
