

Sign-up required for all trips

Native Story Night

Friday, February 6th (6-8pm)

Open invitation to an evening of Native American stories and a warm fire, hosted by a Coastal Salish Storyteller. Hosted by Dead-Fall Club

Kayaking - Saturday February 7th (1-4pm)

Cruise the waters around Amelia Island with this guided natural excursion!

By "Kayak Amelia"

NIGHT HIKES (6-8pm)

January 20th and March 24th are the two hikes dates. Feel free to use the trails sun up to sundown all year-round.

Wild Edibles Walk - Saturday March 7th (10-11am)

Experience the serenity of UNF's trails with an informative lesson on what to eat/not to eat in survival situations. Florida Naturalist Beverly Fleming.

Full Moon Bike Ride - March 11th (6-9pm)

Take a moonlight guided bike-ride on 3-4 miles of Guana Reserve, a beautiful intercostals area.

Anastasia Surf Trip - March 14th-15th

Experienced or not, come camp with us by the beach.

Feel free to bring your own board or rent one of ours!

Beginner Kayak Training

Sunday March 29th (1-4pm)

*A brief introduction to kayaking, students will learn about: proper dress, paddle safety, potential hazards, and simple rescues. ACA Certified Instructor
By "Kayak Adventures"*

Sailing Excursion - Saturday April 4th

Come out for a fun-filled day of sailing on the local St. Johns and surrounding waters, Sea-legs are not required.

Moonlight Kayak Paddle

April 10th (6-9pm)

Enjoy a relaxing evening of paddling and observing wildlife as the moon rises to be your light.

FSU/UNF Whitewater Adventure

April 16th-19th

Get some outdoor thrills with a full day of Class-4 white-water rafting and 3 nights of camping on the French Broad River in North Carolina.

SCUBA Certification March

26th-28th

Earn a PADI Lifetime Certification with only a Thursday night in the classroom, Friday afternoon in the pool and a Saturday dive in nearby springs. PADI Certified Instructor.

For further information please contact us at: (904)620-5951, Rectrail@unf.edu, or our office in lot 100.

“Conscious people in nature,
understanding the value of a healthy environment”

Outdoor Gear

- Can be checked out by UNF Students for free, with minimal fees for Staff
- Monday - Saturday, 1pm to 6pm, excluding university holidays
- Tents, Canoes, Sleeping Bags, Kayaks, Stoves, Backpacks, Coolers, Surfboards, GPS Navigation and more!

Hours of Operation:

Monday - Saturday from 1pm to 6pm

Trips

- Sign-up for trips is required
- Fees are required for each trip with discounts for UNF students
- Ask about our FREE trips and demonstrations!

Create a custom program for your club or UNF organization. Call us for more information on trips, gear, costs and student discounts!

Eco-Adventure is located by Lot 100 where the Nature Trails begin (904) 620-5951 Rectrail@unf.edu www.unf.edu/recsports/nature

Our Sponsors:

Funded by Student Government

Eco-Adventure

UNF Department of Recreation

Spring 2009 Trip Schedule

...Got Gear?