

UNF Finance and Audit Committee

March 12, 2008

Issue Child Development and Research Center Fee Increase for 2008-2009

Proposed Action Approval

Background Information

Each year the University reassesses the fees associated with its Child Development and Research Center to determine what, if any, increases are needed to keep the Center operational.

This year the University recommends the increases in fees shown on the schedule included in the meeting materials.

Mr. Everett Malcolm, Associate Vice President for Student Affairs, will present this item.

Supporting Documentation

- Summary of Fee Changes for the Child Development and Research Center for 2008-2009