

UNF Board of Trustees

June 16, 2005

Issue: Proposed Reorganization of the Department of Sociology, Anthropology, Criminal Justice

Proposed action: Approval

Background information:

The College of Arts and Sciences has submitted a proposal to reorganize its Department of Sociology, Anthropology, and Criminal Justice into two departments: the Department of Sociology and Anthropology and the Department of Criminology and Criminal Justice. This proposal has been reviewed and recommended by the Faculty Association and by the provost and the president of the University as well as by the Educational Policy Committee. It requires approval from the Board of Trustees.

Supporting documentation: Attached