Issue: Name Change for College of Computing Science and Engineering

Proposed action: Approval

Background information:

The College of Computing Science and Engineering has requested that the name of the college be changed to the College of Computing, Engineering, and Construction. This change is requested to represent the full spectrum of programs offered through the College of Computing Science and Engineering. The college faculty, the UNF Faculty Association, the Provost, and Interim President Kline have approved the change. The Educational Policy Committees recommend this change to the Board of Trustees.
