6C9-3.003 Admissions.

(1) Admissions – General.

(a) Admission of students to UNF is within the jurisdiction of the University, but subject to the minimum standards adopted by the Board of Regents.

(b) The University encourages application from all qualified persons without regard to race, color, national or ethnic origin, religion, gender, marital status, age, disability, and veteran status.

(c) The University has established the Office of Equal Opportunity Programs to ensure compliance with federal and state nondiscrimination requirements. Inquiries about policies in these areas should be directed to this Office.

(d) Application materials may be obtained from the Director of Admissions, University of North Florida, 4567 St. Johns Bluff Road, South, Jacksonville, Florida 32224-2645.

(2) Admission to the University is granted for a specific term. If the applicant chooses not to attend UNF during that specific term, the admission is cancelled. Should the applicant desire to enroll during a different academic term than the term for which admission was granted, the applicant should contact the Admissions Office concerning appropriate application update procedures.

(3) An application, residency affidavit, or accompanying documents or statements in connection with, or supplemental to the application for admission to the University which contains false, fraudulent or incomplete statements may result in denial of admission or further registration and/or invalidation of University credit or the degree based upon such credit.
