I'm a photography major and all the professors I've had so far have pushed me to become a better photographer than I thought was possible. If it weren't for them teaching and making me grow as an artist I wouldn't be where I am right now. They've led me to believe that I can be successful in commercial photography.

17. Of all the courses that you have taken in your major, which have been the best and why?

Text Response

American Art courses, Dr. Elizabeth Heuer was outstanding Advanced Lighting because I got a chance to work with different lighting setups in the studio. This helped me become a better at lighting a scene and better at taking portraits of people.
Any class with Dr. Brown or Elizabeth Huere. They are amazing.
Art history on site in Rome gallery practices and sculpture classes- good teachers who care.
The class Picturing Florida was one of the best classes I've taken. It was the most interesting because most people don't think of a Florida as having major art, but in fact many artists traveled to Florida to paint. The class also coincided with an exhibition at the Cummer Museum, "La Florida". The whole idea of the class inspired me to get out and see Florida art that is right in front of me like the Ponce de Leon Hotel.

18. Of all the courses that you have taken outside your major, which have been the best and why?

When I arrived at UNF I decided to take a couple of education classes to see if that was something I wanted as a career

Though you may not be interested in a certain area in art history, it doesn't mean you shouldn't study it. So much is learned about a culture by studying their art.
