   - Summary: Nominations are being sought for the 2014 Albert D. Ernest, Jr. Caring Award and the Halamandaris Caring Internship at the Heart of America Foundation in Washington D.C.
   - Importance: These awards recognize students who demonstrate the spirit of caring, humanitarianism and volunteerism.

2. Student Leadership Summit submitted by Alison Kent, Coordinator, Events Planning – Taylor Leadership Institute
   - Dates: Begin September 20, 2013 and end on Friday, October 11, 2013.
   - Summary: Fostering fun and opportunity, the Student Leadership Summit will create dynamic exchanges between you and influential speakers and faculty engaging in dialogue. More information at http://www.unf.edu/taylor-leadership/Upcoming_Events.aspx
   - Importance: The Taylor Leadership Institute in partnership with Undergraduate Studies and the UNF Reads! Committee presents the fifth annual UNF Student Leadership Summit with the dynamic and engaging theme, Discover the “Millennial Outlier” in YOU: LEAD Forward. The Summit captures the interest of leaders in the Jacksonville community as well as UNF’s students and faculty. Leadership acuity is what graduate schools, Fortune 500 companies and other competitive businesses pursue. This must attend event is a great way to meet distinguished Jacksonville leaders while simultaneously making new friends and acquiring leadership skills. The Summit will present you with an opportunity to discover the “outlier” within and become an agent of change.
