Mandatory student visa and health Insurance

• Student visa (for non european students)
The procedure depends on the length of your intended stay:
if your stay is equal to or shorter than 90 days in France: you must apply for a short-stay visa
if your stay in France is longer than 90 days in France: you must apply for a long-stay visa

• Health Insurance
Before coming to France, students from the EU must fill out the Form E-128 (certification that they benefit from social security in their country of origin) with their national social security office to obtain reimbursement of their medical costs in France.
EU students may receive their reimbursement by presenting Form E-128 to the Center for International Relations for the Caisse Primaire d'Assurance Maladie de Paris:
173 rue de Bercy - 75012 Paris
