The University of North Florida welcomes you to the new semester! Week of Welcome, or WOW, welcomes new and returning students to the campus community through a series of programs and activities spanning the first week of fall classes. Week of Welcome will help you discover the campus, find new friends, meet people who can help you get involved at UNF, and learn more about academic and co-curricular programs and services available to students.

WOW is open to all new and returning students, so remember to bring your Osprey 1Card to all events.

WOW Leaders are your official guides during Week of Welcome. Look for students wearing this shirt.
