Roommates Bill of Rights

1. Your roommates have the right to 8 hours of uninterrupted sleep.
2. Your roommates have the right to the quiet study time each needs to do well in school.
3. Your roommates each have the right to be treated with respect.
4. Your roommates have the right to an equal share of space in the room.
5. Your roommates have the right to be listened to and taken seriously.
6. Your roommates have the right to make mistakes – and be responsible for them.
7. Your roommates have the right to express their own feelings in a manner that does not violate the dignity of others.
8. Your roommates have the right to say no without feeling guilty.
9. Your roommates have the right to have preferences and have them be as important as other people’s preferences.

Roommates Responsibilities

1. Your roommates are responsible for allowing you the same rights that they enjoy.
2. Your roommates are responsible for the rules and regulations stated in the Student Handbook and the Resident Handbook.

Your Rights and Responsibilities

You have the same rights and responsibilities as your roommate(s)!!!!

Roommate Conflict

There may be a time when you and one of your roommates have a conflict. This is very normal and can be expected when two or more people try to live together. Communication is the key to conflict resolution. Step one is to sit and TALK. It is important that you not speak when you are angry. Be kind to one another. Remember that you are trying to improve your living situation. Be honest and attempt to be understanding.