

Bette Soldwedel Research Initiative Application for Research Stipend

The Bette Soldwedel Research Initiative offers stipends of $500 to UNF students who are engaged in research projects that focus on matters of gender and to women-identifying students who are engaged in any kind of academic research. Upon completion of the project, recipients of the stipend must provide a copy of the research and present at a program sponsored by the Soldwedel initiative.

Applicant Name: _____

N#: _____

Affiliation at UNF: _____

Briefly describe the research or project for which you will use the BSRC stipend (250 words max):

Briefly explain how you would use the BSRC stipend to further your research or project (250 words max):

Bette Soldwedel Research Initiative Application for Research Stipend, p. 2

By signing below, I acknowledge that the information contained in this application is correct and that I understand the terms of receiving the stipend.

Applicant Signature

Date

- To complete your application, attach the following:
- Statement of purpose (cover letter describing the project and the significance or relevance of the research)
 - Vita or resume
 - One letter of support