

Health Administration
Brooks College of Health

Bachelor of Health
Management (BHM)

Health Management

unf.edu/brooks/bhm

OVERVIEW

The Bachelor of Health Management provides students with the entry-level skills needed by health management professionals. It also serves to help enhance careers of students already working in the health services industry.

Fully online at the upper level*

WHY CHOOSE UNF'S BHM?

- ✓ Career readiness and diverse opportunities
- ✓ Comprehensive online curriculum
- ✓ Practical experience through internships

CAREERS

Graduates from our program are equipped for entry-level management positions in hospitals, clinics, nursing homes, mental health organizations, insurance companies, public agencies and many other types of healthcare organizations.

MAJOR REQUIREMENTS

- HSA3101 Intro to Health Administration
- HSA4111 U.S. Health Care System
- HSA3522 Managerial Epidemiology
- HSA4553 Health Law and Ethics
- HSA3173 Health Care Accounting
- HSA4544 Global Health Care
- HSA4170 Health Care Finance
- HSA3430 Health Economics/Quant Analysis
- HSA3222 Long Term Care Administration
- HSA4150 Introduction to Health Policy
- HSA3191 Health Information Systems I
- HSA3340 Healthcare Human Resources
- HSA3383 Quality Management Healthcare
- HSA3160 Health Care Marketing
- HSA4922 Capstone: Health Admin

100% of direct instruction is online.*

AGING SERVICES CONCENTRATION

Students will complete nine (9) credit hours specifically for the Aging Services concentration.

The degree and concentration prepare graduates for work in the health services industry.

More information

unf.edu/brooks/bhm

DEVELOPING YOUR EDUCATION TO THE HIGHEST LEVEL

