UNF

Health Administration
Brooks College of Health

Master of Health Administration (MHA)

Health Administration

unf.edu/brooks/mha

OVERVIEW

Our MHA program is designed to prepare individuals to serve as effective administrators, managers, and leaders in the wide variety of organizations and agencies that make up the health services field.

Delivery: Standard (in-person)

WHY CHOOSE UNF'S MHA?

- CAHME accreditation and industry recognition
- Hands-on experience and global perspective
- Strong local network and professional development

CAREERS

Our program's graduates embark on varied career paths, such as hospital administrator, healthcare consultant, health services manager, policy analyst, and clinic director, to name a few, across a wide spectrum of healthcare environments.

MAJOR REQUIREMENTS

HSA5177 Health Care Finance

HSA6114 Health Organization/Delivery

HSA6186 HC Leadership/Org Theory

HSA6435 Health Economics

HSA6198 Health Information Technology

HSA6196 Quantitative Analysis Health

HSA6905 Policy and Law in Healthcare

HSA6385 Quality Management Health Care

HSA6149 HC Planning/Project Man

HSA6342 Healthcare Human Resources

HSA6178 Adv Health Care Financial Mgmt

HSA6520 Managerial Epidemiology

HSA6188 Capstone: Healthcare Strat Mgmt

Select 1 option:

HSA 6815 Pract: Exec Skill Development

HSC 6970 Thesis

DUAL DEGREE OPTIONS

Two dual degrees are currently offered with the MHA

- Master of Science Health Informatics (MSHI)
- Master of Business Administration (MBA)

Courses are taken concurrently in each program, with some courses overlapping.

More information

unf.edu/brooks/mha

DEVELOPING YOUR EDUCATION TO THE HIGHEST LEVEL

UNF
Brooks
College of Health