TRADITIONS OF THE COMMENCEMENT CEREMONY

Academic regalia date back to European universities of the Middle Ages, when gowns and hoods were required for warmth in unheated buildings. Gowns were fur-lined adaptations of the priestly toga, and hoods were worn to protect the tonsured heads of the priests. The regalia now serve as a visible reminder of the historic antecedents of intellectual pursuits.

In American universities of the late 19th century, these medieval costumes were revived to lend color to academic functions. Efforts were made to establish a code that would set standards for academic dress. Gowns of masters and doctors are generally ankle length and closed in front. The master's gown has pointed sleeves that are slit at the elbows. The doctoral gown has wide lapels of velvet, either black or the color of the scholar's specialization. The sleeves are full and bellshaped, with three velvet chevrons, either black or colored like the lapels. Gowns normally are black, although some universities have designed their own in the colors of the institution.

The hood, which drapes over the back of the gown, carries the greatest symbolism of all components of the academic costume. Its length, width and colors denote the wearer's highest academic achievement and institution. The master's hood is pointed; the doctoral hood is bellshaped. The color of the border of the hood indicates the scholar's major field of study; the lining color or colors identifies the institution that conferred the wearer's degree. Hoods were originally trimmed in fur but now have satin borders for masters' and velvet for doctors' hoods.

The customary head covering is the mortarboard, or Oxford cap, with a tassel on the left side. Persons who possess the doctorate wear a tassel of gold metallic threads. The soft, large beret, modeled after the cap of Cambridge University, also has been adopted by some institutions.

The medieval university was much concerned with rank and privilege, and academic robes made visible the social and academic distinctions of the wearers. These distinctions have largely disappeared, and robes now indicate specialization. The following colors are associated with the degrees frequently represented in academic processions:

Administration	Peacock blue
Arts, Letters, Humanities	White
Athletic Training/Kinesiology	Sage green
Business	Light brown
Education	Light blue
Engineering	Orange
Fine Arts	Deep brown
Health and Nutrition	Kelly green
Mathematics and Statistics	Gold
Music	Pink
Nursing	Apricot
Physical and Technological Sciences	Gold
Physical Therapy	Teal
Public Health	Salmon
Social Work	Citron

THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH FLORIDA

The University of North Florida (UNF), one of the 12 public institutions in the State of Florida, is a comprehensive urban university that offers degree programs at the bachelor's, master's and doctoral levels. Established in 1965 as an upper-division and professional graduate institution, the University began offering classes in 1972. Freshmen and sophomores were added to the student body in 1984. UNF's scenic campus is now nestled among 1,381 acres, which includes a nature preserve and wildlife area with lakes and nature trails.

As UNF grows, it is proud of maintaining a reputation for excellence, which attracts a diverse group of highly qualified students. Academic programs are built on a strong foundation in the traditional arts and sciences. The University now has a student body of nearly 17,600 students enrolled in 68 undergraduate degrees with 81 areas of concentration, 45 master's degrees with 98 concentrations, and 6 doctoral degrees with 3 concentrations. It has nearly 600 faculty members and more than 1,100 full-time and part-time staff. UNF has six colleges: Brooks College of Health, Coggin College of Business, College of Arts and Sciences, College of Computing, Engineering and Construction, Silverfield College of Education and Human Services, and Hicks Honors College. The University grants more than 4,300[1] bachelor's, master's and doctoral degrees each year.

UNF is dedicated to excellence in teaching, research and public service. The University's faculty is committed to providing high-quality instruction. The faculty's publications and other creative activities demonstrate a determination to remain at the cutting edge of intellectual inquiry and practice their respective disciplines. The University — through centers and institutes as well as traditional educational offerings and activities — is a major contributor to the community life of Northeast Florida and, indeed, to the larger community.

The generosity of both corporate leaders and dedicated citizens through the UNF Foundation supports scholarships, fellowships and engaging activities on campus and in the community.

The University of North Florida is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges to award baccalaureate, master's, and doctoral degrees. Contact the Commission on Colleges at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097 or call (404) 679-4500 for questions about the accreditation of the University of North Florida. Individual contact with the Commission on Colleges about the University of North Florida accreditation status should occur only if there is evidence that appears to support significant noncompliance with a requirement or standard.

Some professional associations offer further accreditation of specific programs. UNF's programs in athletic training, building construction management, business administration, civil engineering, computer science, electrical engineering, health administration, information science, information systems, information technology, mechanical engineering, music, anesthesiology nursing, nursing, nutrition, physical therapy, public administration, rehabilitation counseling, and teacher education have been accorded national disciplinary accreditation.

FALL 2025 SENIOR SERVICE AWARD WINNER

The University of North Florida Alumni Association recognizes a graduating senior each semester for outstanding service to the University and community through volunteerism. This year, the UNF Alumni Association has selected Tanasha Jackson as the recipient of the Senior Service Award for the Fall 2025 graduating class.

Tanasha Jackson

The UNF Alumni Association is proud to celebrate Tanasha Jackson, our Fall 2025 Senior Service Award recipient. Tanasha's time at UNF has been defined by leadership, advocacy, and a deep commitment to serving others.

A proud member of the Hicks Honors College, Tanasha graduates with dual degrees in Africana Studies and Spanish, plus a minor in Digital Humanities. Her academic journey is impressive, but what truly sets her apart is how she turned learning into action. From mentoring teens through the Mayor's Youth at Work Partnership to preserving African American history with LISC Jacksonville, Tanasha has made a lasting impact on Jacksonville and beyond.

Her passion for supporting first-generation students led her to create the First-Generation Ospreys Club, where she built a welcoming community through events such as Speed Friending and Vision Board Night. She also partnered with campus departments to provide mentorship and resources — work that will continue to benefit students long after graduation.

Tanasha's leadership extended across campus life: serving in student government, organizing cultural programs, and fostering interfaith dialogue. Off campus, she volunteered at the Boys & Girls Club, assisted with immigration cases at UNF's Pre-Law Clinic, and supported bilingual education in local schools. Her efforts reflect a heart for service and a vision for equity.

Along the way, Tanasha earned distinguished honors such as the Martin Luther King Jr. Scholarship and Newman Civic Fellowship, and even co-authored an op-ed for the Florida Times-Union. With certificates in Interfaith Leadership and Sustainable Living, she's ready to take her next steps toward a career in law and educational leadership.

Tanasha's story is one of resilience, purpose, and compassion. We are proud to call her an Osprey alumna and can't wait to see the incredible impact she'll make in the world.

UNF ALMA MATER

Music adapted by Dr. William C. Moffit

Words by Dr. Merrill J. Palmer

VERSE:
We recall those days of gladness,
Nestled midst the lakes and pine,
Where we sought the gift of knowledge,
Alma Mater, pride of mine.

REFRAIN:
Sing her glory and her praises,
Let them ring from sea to sea!
North Florida we proudly honor,
U-N-F, all hail to thee.

VERSE:
Near the shores of the Atlantic,
Where the Osprey soars on high,
Stands our Alma Mater strong and true,
With her colors gray and blue.

REPEAT REFRAIN
