

ONLINE HEALTH ADMINISTRATION DEGREES

DISTINGUISHED EDUCATORS

Learn from leading industry professionals committed to your professional growth.

HIGH-QUALITY CURRICULUM

Meets national online learning standards and supports success for diverse learners.

PROFESSIONAL NETWORKING

Opportunities to build relationships that support career advancement.

HEALTHCARE MANAGEMENT, BHM

Prepares graduates for entry-level administrative positions in hospitals, clinics, nursing homes, mental health organizations, insurance companies, public agencies and various other healthcare organizations. Students may choose to pursue the BHM, Aging Services concentration to prepare for a career supporting this significant demographic. This program can be completed online at the upper level as part of a 120-credit hour bachelor's degree.

- Bachelor's degree with upper-level credit hours fully online
- Full & part-time enrollment
- Admits Fall, Spring & Summer
- FL resident tuition & non-FL resident tuition

EXECUTIVE HEALTH ADMINISTRATION, EMHA

Designed for working healthcare professionals with at least three years of industry experience. The program supports executives, physicians and clinical leaders while encouraging a high level of networking and engagement. The curriculum provides contextual and leading-edge concepts to provide critical thinking skills and the necessary competences to succeed in the healthcare industry.

- 30 credit hours
- Full-time enrollment, Cohort model
- Primarily online
- Admits Fall & Spring
- FL resident tuition & non-FL resident tuition

HEALTH INFORMATICS

A multidisciplinary STEM curriculum designed to prepare graduates for careers in health information roles in organizations that utilize healthcare data in decision-making. Graduates pursue roles such as clinical and nursing informaticists, health information managers, data analysts and chief information officers. The program is offered by the Brooks College of Health in partnership with the Coggin College of Business and the College of Computing, Engineering and Construction.

MSHI

- 33 credit hours
- Full & part-time enrollment
- Primarily online or in-person
- Admits Fall & Spring
- FL resident tuition & non-FL resident tuition

GRADUATE CERTIFICATE

- 12 credit hours
- Part-time enrollment
- Fully online
- Admits Fall & Spring
- FL resident tuition & non-FL resident tuition

HEALTH ADMINISTRATION, DHA

Focuses on global health leadership and advanced, evidence-based management of healthcare facilities and institutions. The DHA is considered an applied doctorate, that utilizes the evidence available in clinical, organizational and policy areas to directly solve complex problems in healthcare.

- 48 credit hours
- Full-time enrollment, Cohort model
- Primarily online
- Admits Fall
- FL resident tuition & non-FL resident tuition

SCAN FOR MORE INFO

