NEW ACADEMIC DEGREE PROGRAM

EMHA is an online program with three weekend seminars that is designed to meet the needs of working professionals. The online format provides an alternative to face-to-face courses of study that allows students to conveniently integrate their academic work into their lifestyles.

The courses and weekend seminars are designed to meet the specific educational needs of persons with healthcare experience, while allowing opportunities for networking with peers and community leaders.

Complete the course work in the convenience of an online program.

Learn from experienced faculty.

Engage with the nation’s leading healthcare executives.

EDUCATE. ENCOURAGE. EMPOWER.

The Department of Health Administration at UNF offers an exciting place to learn. The EMHA program is uniquely situated in a healthcare intensive community. We are proud to have the support and mentorship of many healthcare executives.

EMHA TIME LIMIT

The EMHA program discourages students from getting off track, since students are expected to complete the program as a cohort, following a specific progression through curriculum in approximately 20 months.

NECESSARY SKILLS

Alumni, Preceptors, and our UNF Advisory Board of healthcare administrators confirmed that the top competencies needed for leadership at all levels are: communication, analytical, and innovative thinking skills.

Our EMHA curriculum provides contextual and leading-edge concepts to provide you with the critical thinking skills and necessary competencies to succeed in complex and challenging business situations.

EMHA REQUIREMENTS

• At least five years of healthcare experience.
• Currently employed in the health or human services field and have, or expect to have, managerial or supervisory experience.
• Bachelor’s Degree from an accredited college or university with a grade point average of at least 3.0 on a 4.0 scale. Allowances may be made when justified by exceptional work experience and letters of recommendation.
• Transcripts
• Letter of Interest
• Two Letters of Recommendation

“The UNF EMHA Program is a structured cohort that allows students to meet their professional demands while conveniently earning their advanced degree so they can become executive leaders in the healthcare industry.”
