

Policies & Regulations

Academic Affairs: Enrollment Services

Re-Admission

Number: 2.0200P
Effective Date: 5/1/1998
Revised Date: 7/27/2016
Responsible Division/Department:
Academic Affairs / Enrollment Services

- New Policy
- Major Revision of Existing Policy
- Minor/Technical Revision of Existing Policy
- Reaffirmation of Existing Policy
- Repealed Policy

I. OBJECTIVE & PURPOSE

To establish policy and procedures for former students who seek re-admission at the University.

II. STATEMENT OF POLICY

1. UNF students who have broken continuous enrollment which is defined as not having enrolled for three consecutive terms, must submit a new application for admission as well as the application fee.
2. UNF students whose admission decisions were rescinded must submit a new application. Students who reapply after breaking continuous enrollment will be required to pay the application fee.
3. UNF students who left on academic suspension and broke continuous enrollment (as defined Academic Standing 2.0610P and Graduate Academic Standing 2.0400P) must reapply as indicated above. Admission decisions will be made in collaboration with the appropriate academic department.
4. Students who must reapply are subject to the admission and program requirements published in the catalog for the academic year in which they re-initiate enrollment at UNF.

Policies & Regulations

Academic Affairs: Graduate School

Readmission of Inactive Students

Number:	2.0230P	<input type="checkbox"/> New Policy
Effective Date:		<input type="checkbox"/> Major Revision of Existing Policy
Revised Date:	02/16/2010	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Minor/Technical Revision of Existing Policy
Responsible Division/Department:	The Graduate School	<input type="checkbox"/> Reaffirmation of Existing Policy
		<input type="checkbox"/> Repealed Policy

I. OBJECTIVE & PURPOSE

To establish criteria for readmission of inactive students.

II. STATEMENT OF POLICY

Students who have been accepted previously but who never enrolled or who have not taken courses for one year (three consecutive terms, including summers) must update their admissions applications with the Graduate School. They must do so at least six weeks before the beginning of the term in which they wish to enroll. They will be responsible for meeting any new general admissions requirements or program specific requirements.