

APPENDIX B

CAMPUS DISTURBANCE OR DEMONSTRATION

Policy

In general, peaceful, non-obstructive demonstrations should not be interrupted. Demonstrators should not be obstructed or provoked and efforts should be made to conduct University business as normal as possible.

General Guidance

A demonstration should not be disrupted unless one or more of the following conditions exist as a result of the demonstration:

- Interference with normal operations of the University
- Prevention of access to office, building, or other University facilities
- Threat of physical harm to people
- Threat or actual damage to University property

If any of these conditions do exist, the UPD will ask the demonstrators to terminate the disruptive activity and inform them that failure to discontinue the specified action will result in disciplinary action or immediate arrest.

If demonstrators are asked to leave, but refuse to leave by regular facility closing time:

- Arrangements should be made for the UPD to closely monitor the situation during non-business hours, or
- A decision will be made to treat the violation of regular closing hours as a disruptive demonstration
- If there is an immediate threat of bodily harm or damage to property, the UPD will intervene to prevent an incident and contact the University incident Commander with an update of the situation.
