The undersigned Donor agrees to contribute the following tangible property to the University of North Florida Foundation, Inc. per the following policy: The University of North Florida Foundation, Inc. is a tax-exempt corporate entity as described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Foundation Board or its designee must approve in advance the acceptance of any non-cash gift. If such gifts are accepted, the needs of the University will determine whether the asset is sold or ownership is transferred to the University. When property is transferred from the Foundation to the University, it becomes subject to all the normal restrictions governing University property. In considering whether to accept gifts of tangible personal property or real estate, the Foundation Board will consider such items as the benefit to the University, the cost of acceptance of the gift and the long-term cost of maintaining and/or operating the gift. The Foundation Board has the right not to accept any gifts when the Board determines that such acceptance would not be in the best interests of the Foundation and the University. If acceptance of computer equipment would result in state maintenance costs exceeding $2,500, the Information Resource Manager must approve acceptance of such equipment.
