WHAT IS THE SANDY MILLER METROTOWN INSTITUTE?

The OneJax Sandy Miller Metrotown Institute, named for the transformative leader of Metrotown, is a gathering of high school students, entering grades 9-12, who come together to explore options for living successfully in an increasingly diverse and inter-dependent world. At the Sandy Miller Metrotown Institute students share ideas and feelings, discover their own unique talents, experience a variety of perspectives on diversity issues, multicultural communication, religious traditions, gender roles, and self-esteem. Participants create strategies for living and working with a multitude of differences.

The goal of the Sandy Miller Metrotown Institute is to promote respect and understanding among all people. This goal is achieved through small group discussions and workshops, creative and artistic expression, recreation, outdoor experiences, and personal reflection on our diverse community. Be prepared! When you've completed the Sandy Miller Metrotown Institute, you'll see the world through different eyes and you will have made a lasting and positive difference in your own life, and in the lives of your new friends.

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST?

The delegate's financial responsibility for the four days is a $150 Registration Fee. Breakfast and lunch are provided daily and dinner is provided on Thursday night. We have plenty of snacks in the daytime. Insurance, educational and resource materials, transportation needs and use of site facilities are covered through the generosity of our sponsors. Financial assistance is available based on need. No one will be prevented from attending because they cannot afford the registration fee.
