(2) The University Board of Trustees may grant additional tuition and associated fee waivers on an individual basis for purposes that support and enhance the mission of the University of North Florida. The University may waive tuition and associated fees related to mission-centric needs. Waivers are awarded based on the University's established key selection criteria of recruitment, retention, diversity and service to students who meet certain initial requirements.

UNF Mission – Centric awards shall support the following areas of need.

- (a) Recruitment of students with special skills, talents or attributes.
- (b) Graduate teaching, and research assistants and graduate fellowships
- (c) Student retention as a result of unique or extenuating circumstances.
- (d) International and out-of-state students who will increase the student profile or support UNF's commitment to globalization of curriculum and

~~the campus environment. And those students coming to the University~~ under a balanced ~~student~~ exchange program.
