

UNF Exchange Programs: Odense, DENMARK

Overview

The University of Southern Denmark's international campus is in the city of Odense. Lively and youthful, this historical city has a bustling social scene and is little more than an hour away from Copenhagen. At SDU you will be part of a lively international student environment with more than 1500 international students.

Class Options & Academic Calendar

Many courses are taught in English, so you can get by without Danish, in and out of the classroom. In true Scandinavian tradition, students participate significantly in class and work in groups. SDU's class offerings in Engineering and Sciences are particularly strong.

Fall Semester: September - December

Spring Semester: February - June
